LIFE PUT INTO CONVENTION

GREAT ENTHUSIASM AROUSED BY CHAIRMAN CANNON

Speaker Was the Central Figure in the Proceedings Yesterday—Nominations to Be Made to Day—Fairbanks May Have No Opposition for Vice President.

Chicago, June 22.—Because Speaker Cannon was the central figure in the proceedings of the Republican national convention to day took on a picturesqueness and demonstrativeness which yesterday was looked for in vain. From the moment he was escorted to the platform to wield the gavel as permanent chairman the entire atmosphere of the convention changed. Enthusiasm which had lain dormant burst forth and applause rang true and hearty. He made a speech and the audience cheered whether he spoke facetiously or in a serious vein. He was the entertainer; in fact, he was the convention.

From the standpoint of political importance the adoption of the platform was the event of the day. It contained the declaration of party policy that are to form the basis of much of the oratory in the coming campaign. But the permanent chairman's personality almost overshadowed the platform.

WANTED ANOTHER DAY.
The second day of the convention might have been the close had it been the desire of the assembled delegates. Early in the day a movement was inaugurated to proceed with nominations, but the original program, prepared to extend over three days, prevailed and the standard bearers of the 1904 Republican campaign will be named to morrow.

The lively party enthusiasm aroused by the hearty reception given Cannon spread even to routine business and culminated in the contest of the number of delegates to which Hawaii was entitled. This was disposed of by adoption of a rule that representation hereafter should be two delegates from Hawaii, but that the six delegates already seated should not be disturbed.

WISCONSIN CASE.

The report of the committee on credentials interested the convention only so far as it dealt with the Wisconsin situation. Senator McComas of Maryland, chairman of the committee, read the report of the investigation of the contest. He took the delegates into the confidence of the committee and explained in detail that a thorough canvass was made into the merits of the contest, despite the fact the contestants had withdrawn their claims on the ground that fair treatment could not be had. He said the imputation was directed at the convention itself and though resented deeply by the committee the inquiry was exhaustive and patient. The report closed with declaration that the "stalwart" faction led by Senators Spooner and Quarles, Representative Babcock and Judge Emil Buensch, the four delegates-at-large, is the regular Republican party in Wisconsin. This national endorsement of the faction headed by the two Wisconsin senators evoked prolonged applause.

THE PLATFORM.

One of the remarkable features concerning the adoption of the platform was the fact that it has been the subject of administrative scrutiny and national interest for many weeks and was accepted without a dissenting vote. In addition to the tariff plank and other resolutions which always have had a prominent position in Republican platforms there were incorporated several clauses of striking interest. One of these is a plank looking to the reduction of representation of certain southern states in the electoral college and in congress. The plank directs an investigation to ascertain whether there has been unconstitutional disfranchisement of voters in any state and if so demands reduction of representation of such states in congress, with consequent reduction in the electoral college and in national conventions.

INSPIRING APPEARANCE.

The visitors were not so early about the convention hall to day, but when Root called the convention to order shortly after noon the Coliseum presented a more inspiring appearance than on the preceding day. The galleries were for the first time crowded and the large number of ladies present was especially noticeable.

Among the first of prominent men to enter were Senators Platt and Dewey. They were welcomed heartily. The Alaskan delegation with their eagle-surmounted tabor poles were the second attraction. The greatest demonstration as delegations were entering the hall was that which greeted Senator Fairbanks.

After the following prayer by Rev. Thomas E. Cox the business of the day began:
"Our Father who art in Heaven, we thank thee for the opportunities of this day. In all humility we adore thy sovereign majesty. To thee we look for grace and guidance. In thy hands are the destinies of nations, thy providence enters into the careers of men. There is no just power but from thee. Thy will is the sole source of law and good government. Bless the deliberations of this convention. Let us not forget those who have bequeathed to us a glorious history. Give us wisdom and understanding. Drive from us all self-seeking. Fill us with love of country, of peace, of firmness and of justice. For justice exalts a nation, but when the wicked bear rule peoples perish. Hasten the day when it shall be said: 'Thy kingdom of this world is become our Lord's and His Christ's and He shall reign forever and ever.' Amen."

When Senator McComas had completed reading the report of the committee on credentials Senator Foraker called attention to the fact Major General Osterhaus, a German veteran of the civil war, was in the hall and suggested he be invited to a seat on the platform. The convention cheered the name of Osterhaus and a committee escorted the general to the platform, where he was introduced to the convention. In a decidedly German accent Osterhaus thanked the convention for the honor accorded him. He mentioned the fact he had been present when Abraham Lincoln was nominated. Applause which followed was vigorous.

CANNON TAKES CHARGE.

Announcement of permanent organization for the convention started the continuous demonstration which followed introduction of Speaker Cannon as permanent chairman. He was escorted to the platform by Hon. John D. Long, Senator Cullom and Representative Burton of Ohio. The temporary and permanent chairmen met in the center of the stage, where they clasped hands in cordial greeting. At this moment applause was deafening, the convention rising to its feet. Still clapping his hand, Root led Cannon to the front of the platform and introduced him as the man who presided over the greatest legislative body in America "with a grip so strong, mind so clear and heart so sound that he would wield the gavel in that body for many years to come."

The scene that followed was inspiring. Flags were waved, hats thrown into the air, delegates jumped to their feet and then to chairs, shouting wildly, loudly and continuously. Until the applause subsided Cannon stood awkwardly feeling his audience. In contrast with this his appearance after he had made himself heard and his magnetism felt.

PLEASED THE DELEGATES.

Speaker Cannon's oratory was decidedly to the liking of the convention. He established cordial relations even before he had uttered a word. He stood silent for a moment. His face fascinated. It expressed abundant humor, strangely blended with verve pugnacity. He was pausing to think how to begin. His thoughts were pictured on his face. They were pleasant; they were inspiring. Instinctively he drew himself up and characteristically raised his hand for a gesture even before he spoke. Then came a delightfully refreshing and humorously frank avowal. Each of the thousands of listeners received a confidential tip. The speaker had written his first speech and had tried to memorize it. But he did not have the slightest intention of following it. He knew the inspiration that would come—that had come—and he just wanted a free hand to cut loose. "So let us ramble a while." That is what he said. And then he abandoned himself to his limitless store of profound political sagacity and his original and characteristic vocabulary. Throughout his address the cheering was generous, intelligent and appreciative.

CANNON'S SPEECH

Address Delivered by Permanent Chairman of the Convention.

Almost at the opening of his speech Chairman Cannon referred to the lack of enthusiasm in this convention:

"It is a contest that makes enthusiasm," he said. "In 1901, as in 1900, everybody has known for twelve months past who is to be our standard bearer in this campaign. We are here for business. I wonder if our friends the enemy would not be glad of a little of our kind of enthusiasm."

"The Republican party, born of the declaration that slavery is sectional and freedom national, achieved its first success in 1864 with Abraham Lincoln. Forty-four years ago, just about now, 1864, what a contrast—a divided country, a bankrupt treasury, no credit. In 1860 we had been substantially defeated for many years by the free trade party, insignificant in manufactures, great in agriculture. Under our policy, which has been followed with the exception of four years from that time to this, the United States remains first in agriculture, but, by leaps and bounds, has diversified her industries until to day we are the greatest manufacturing country on God's footstool. One-third of all the world's products that come from the factory are made in the United States by the operation and co-operation of American capital and American labor and skill. Our product every year is greater than the entire combined manufactured product of Great Britain, of Germany and of France. Where do we get the market for it? Ninety-seven per cent of this great product—one-third of the world's product—finds a market amongst ourselves in the United States, and yet, of this product, last year, we sold to foreign countries—I am speaking now of the manufactured product—more than $100,000,000—29 per cent of our total export, and our total exports made and made us the greatest exporting nation on earth."

The growth of the postal business was also cited as showing progress under Republican administration. In 1860 the postal revenues were $5,000,000; last year, despite a reduction of more than half in rates, it was $124,000,000.

The speaker compared the results of free trade, free ships, tariff for revenue only of the Democrats with those achieved under the Republican protective policy. In 1860 the per capita of wealth was $300; in 1900, $1,223.

Take the country under the administration of Grover Cleveland, he said and compare it with the country under the administrations of McKinley and under Roosevelt. If a man will dwell on the comparison for a moment and make a fair comparison, if he would not endorse the policies of the Republican party, he would not believe one though he were raised from the dead. McKinley! Roosevelt! The Dingley act that restored our economic prosperity! The gold standard act that settled for all time the matter of sound currency! The short triumph war with Spain! The Philippines coming under our flag and freedom to Cuba! Is a record that will stand in the future, second only to the record made by George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

The trust question was discussed at length. He said that President Roosevelt's opinion is that trusts are unlawful and should be dissolved, and that the difference between the Democratic methods and Roosevelt's is that "one bursts by wind, the other bursts by law."

Strikes were next considered. The speaker defined a strike as an effort by the employer and employee to agree how the profit should be divided, and asked "how many strikes were there under Cleveland when the Democrats had the running of things? When money became scarce the profits were scarce. There is the whole story. Oh, but outrageous things are done by the employer when he oppresses the laborer, and outrageous things are done by some laborers when they go on a strike. Yet outrageous things are done in some of our best governed churches and amongst those who do not belong to any church. Once in a while a citizen commits larceny. Once in a while a man is guilty of homicide. Why, the law is made to protect society against the man who will not obey the law and who makes war on his neighbors. Yet, there is law breaking and disorder. Lawbreaking at times in organization of labor when it goes on a strike. But the great body of American people that own the wealth are not for trusts, and the great body of labor, honest men who live by the sweat of their faces, are not for law breaking in strikes. Law, the shoot anchor of civilization, is strong enough to pull down the strongest, strong enough to curb the wicked and vicious. Strong enough, like God's grace, to throw its arms about the weakest and poorest and bring him under its protection. All must obey under Theodore Roosevelt as the national representative of law. He is and will continue to be without favor or affection the representative of law, supreme and universal in our borders."

Concluding, he said: "The twentieth century is to bring more of good or evil to the human race than the nineteenth century brought. Under what party banner will you enlist? Under that of the reactionists? Under that of the people who sit still or tear down? Or will you take service with the party of Lincoln and Grant and Garfield and Harrison and McKinley and Roosevelt and help us march on to victory?"

CORTELYOU IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, June 22.—Secretary Cortelyou arrived in Chicago to day and conferred with Republican leaders. The new national committee will meet to morrow immediately after the convention adjourns and Cortelyou will be elected chairman. During the evening Cortelyou visited hotels and in the lobbies met many Republicans from different states.

MASS MEETING HELD.

Chicago, June 22.—Further to stimulate party enthusiasm a political mass meeting was held in the Auditorium to night, which was addressed by Senator Dewey and other well known Republicans, who sounded the keynote of the coming campaign and drove home what they regarded the strong planks in the platform adopted to day.

VICE PRESIDENCY

Fairbanks May Have Clear Field for Nomination

Chicago, June 22.—Entries in the vice presidential race are being scratched with great rapidity since the withdrawal of Representative Hitt was announced to day. Colorado, Nebraska, Wisconsin and Missouri have all practically decided not to place their favorite sons in nomination. Missouri to night seems least inclined to abandon intention to nominate Walbridge. The opinion, however, is that no other nomination than Fairbanks will be made.

WITHDRAW HITT'S NAME.

The Illinois delegation met to day and decided to withdraw the name of Representative Hitt. Senator Dooliver will present the name of Fairbanks to the convention.

GOV. LAFOLLETTE

Says His Faction Will go to a Higher Court.

Madison, Wis., June 22.—"We are going before a higher court, and I do not care what the credentials committee reported in Chicago. The situation is not understood there and the delegates did not want to learn," said Governor LaFollette. "Our campaign is ready to go on and we are ready to meet any move the 'stalwarts' may make. The state central committee will meet Friday and we will at once proceed to business. Our dependence is on the people."

A FATAL FIRE

Quincy School Teacher Suffocated and Two Other Women Fatally Burned.

Quincy, June 22.—In a fire in the Tremont house to night Miss Elizabeth Welch, principal of the Jefferson school, met death by suffocation, and her sister, Miss Mary Welch, principal of the Jackson school, was probably fatally burned. Mrs. Theodore Wallant was taken from a fourth floor window unconscious, but will live. Edith Simons, cook in the hotel, was badly burned and may die. The fire was caused by defective electric wiring. Loss on hotel, $75,000.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTIONS.

Duluth, Minn., June 22.—The Hearst forces captured the temporary organization of the state Democratic convention to day and it was expected that they would be strong enough to instruct the delegates for their candidate. But to night the anti-Hearst forces are putting up a very vigorous fight and the chances appear about even. The "anties" are led by Congressman Lind and others who have in the past been ardent supporters of William J. Bryan.

The convention decided not to instruct delegates. Delegates-at-large are: John Lind, Minneapolis; L. A. Rosling, Cannon Falls; H. L. Buck, Winona; C. D. O'Brien, St. Paul. Three of these are anti-Hearst.

San Antonio, June 22.—The Democratic state convention to day endorsed Parker for its presidency.

Burlington, Vt., June 22.—The Democratic state convention to day selected an unopposed delegation to the St. Louis convention and named a state ticket headed by Eli H. Porter for governor.

DISCUSS PLATFORM.

London, June 22.—The Times, the only morning paper which prints an editorial on the platform adopted by the Republicans at Chicago, says the platform bears the stamp of the individuality of President Roosevelt and excites admiration for its adroitness as well as for its strength.

"Adroit, it unquestionably is," says the Times, "but save in the few points where the hand of the politician is visibly impressed upon it, it seems to be bold and clear and consistent. What the judgment of the people will be it would be neither prudent nor politic at present to forecast, but be it what it may, it must determine great issues, not for the United States alone, but for civilized mankind."

A BATTLE IMMINENT.

St. Petersburg, June 22.—The imminence of a battle in the northern part of the Liao Tung peninsula is admitted by the war office.

The week of skirmishing around Shu Yen retarded Kuraki's operations, permitting Sinkelberg to reach Kiping, the rear guard slowly falling back on Sen-tchen before the Japanese advance.

DEATHS.

Chicago, June 22.—C. H. Chappell, formerly vice president and general manager of the Chicago & Alton railroad, died suddenly to day of heart disease at his residence in Chicago. Mr. Chappell was born in Illinois in 1831 and had been in the railroad service more than forty years.

INSTITUTE OF HOMOPATHY.

Nagasaki, Japan, June 22.—The American Institute of Homopathy to day elected Dr. George Royal of Des Moines, Iowa, president.

STEAMER DISASTER

Coroner's Inquest Brings Out Fact Life Preservers Were Old and Fire Hose in Poor Condition.

New York, June 22.—The fact was brought out at the coroner's inquest to day that the ill-fated steamer General Slocum had no life preservers aboard less than nine years old. Evidence was also brought out that the United States inspectors did not examine the fire hose and standpipes and that the preservers were not in good shape.

To day thirty-seven of the victims were found, making the total number recovered $83. Of these 78 have been identified. From present indications the death toll will total nearly a thousand.

NO TRACE OF MISSING MAN.

London, June 22.—Apparently nothing is known in regard to the disappearance of Kent J. Loomis, brother of Assistant Secretary of State Loomis, who was a passenger on board the steamer Kaber William II, which left New York June 11 and arrived at Bremen yesterday. Inquiries made at Bremen show that Loomis was seen at midnight Sunday on board the steamer and that he was missing on Monday morning. No one seems to know what happened in the interval.

RANSOM READY

Pardieris and Varley May Be Released to Day.

Tanger, June 22.—It is said on good authority that Messrs. Pardieris and Varley will be released to morrow, when the ransom of $50,000, partly in checks and partly in silver, will be sent to Raisul. The amount of the ransom has been advanced to the sultan by a French firm here.

Mulid Hamat, sheriff of Wazir, says he will leave Tanger to morrow morning with the ransom for Messrs. Pardieris and Varley and that he expects to return to morrow night. He refuses to allow newspaper correspondents to accompany him because of danger that arrangements might thereby be upset.

Paris, June 22.—Foreign office advisers say there is no hitch in negotiations in regard to the release of Pardieris and Varley. The only cause of delay, it is added, is that Raisul is desirous of securing a place for handling over his prisoners where his personal safety will not be jeopardized. Officials here expect release of the captives within forty-eight hours.

UNITED TYPOTHETAE.

St. Louis, June 22.—The adoption of a new constitution, which contains many principles that have previously been only recommendations to various members of the association, was the chief business of to day's session of the United Typothetae of America. The most important addition to the laws of the association was a clause which provides for an emergency fund, to which the local organization is bound to subscribe. The convention declared itself opposed to less than fifty-four hours a week for day work; disapproved the union label and urged members to discourage its use; favors the open shop.

MURDERER SURROUNDED.

Eau Claire, Wis., June 22.—Sheriff McMillan received word to night that a man believed to be the murderer of Sheriff Harris of St. Croix county is surrounded between Black River Falls and Merrill. The fugitive has held up farmers during his flight and compelled them to furnish him with horses.

OHIO STUDENT WON.

St. Louis, June 22.—The world's fair oratorical contest, open to state university students, held to night was won by Howard Stanley Smith, of Miami university, Ohio. Jesse Hole, of Kansas university, was second.

DISCONTINUE DEPARTMENTS.

Jolet, June 22.—At the commencement exercises of St. Francis academy to day it was announced that all departments of the academy except art, music and normal work will be discontinued. For thirty years this has been one of the leading Catholic educational institutions of Illinois. Preparation of teachers for parochial schools throughout the country will hereafter be made a specialty.

LOCKOUT THREATENED.

Chicago, June 22.—Ten thousand tailors and cutters are to be locked out to morrow if the United Garment Workers of America fail to influence forty cutters and 800 tailors who walked out of one establishment to day to return to work. The complaint of the cutters is directed especially against a foreman. A conference was held lasting nearly all day, but without result, and to night the garment workers' officials were notified the garment workers employed by twenty-seven firms in Chicago will be locked out if the union could not compel the strikers to return to work.

ST. PAUL, JUNE 22.

Habeas corpus proceedings were begun in the district court to day by Herman Heitmueller to get possession of his baby daughter, Lydia, whom he alleges is being held by his mother-in-law until he pays the expenses of his wife's funeral.

THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

ADOPTED BY THE NATIONAL CONVENTION WEDNESDAY

People are Assured Present Era of Prosperity Will Be Continued—American Labor and Capital Will Be Protected From Foreign Invasion—Platform in Full.

Chicago, June 22.—The committee on resolutions this afternoon reported the platform of the Republican party to the convention and it was adopted. The platform, in full, follows:

Fifty years ago the Republican party came into existence, dedicated among other purposes to the great task of arresting the extension of human slavery. In 1860 it elected its first president. During twenty-four of the forty-four years which have elapsed since the election of Lincoln the Republican party has held complete control of the government. For eighteen more of the forty-four years it has held partial control, through the possession of one or the other branches of the government, while the Democratic party during the same period has had complete control for only two years. This long tenure of power by the Republicans is not due to chance. It is a demonstration that the Republican party has commanded the confidence of the American people for nearly two generations, to a degree never equaled in our history, and has displayed a high capacity for rule and government which has been made even more conspicuous by the inequity and infidelity of purpose shown by its opponents.

THE CANAL.

The possession of a route for an isthmian canal, for so long the dream of American statesmanship, is now an accomplished fact. The great work of connecting the Pacific and the Atlantic by a canal is at last begun and it is due to the Republican party.

We have passed laws which will bring the arid lands of the United States within the area of cultivation.

We have reorganized the army and put it in the highest state of efficiency.

We have passed laws for the improvement and support of the militia.

We have pushed forward the building of the navy, the defense and protection of our honor and our interests.

Our administration of the great departments of the government has been honest and efficient and wherever wrongdoing has been discovered the Republican administration has not hesitated to probe the evil and bring offenders to justice, without regard to political ties.

THE TARIFF.

Laws enacted by the Republican party which the Democratic party failed to enforce and which were intended for the protection of the public against unjust discrimination or encroachment of vast aggregations of capital, have been fearlessly enforced by a Republican president and new laws insuring reasonable public life as to the operations of great corporations and providing additional remedies for the prevention of discrimination in freight rates have been passed by a Republican congress.

In this record of achievement during the past eight years may be read the pledges which the Republican party has fulfilled. We promise to continue those policies and we declare our constant adherence to the following principles:

Protection which guards and develops our industries is a cardinal policy of the Republican party. The measure of protection shall always at least equal the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad. We insist upon the maintenance of the principle of protection, and, therefore, rates of duty should be readjusted only when conditions have so changed that the public interest demands their alteration, but this work cannot be safely committed to any other hands than those of the Republican party. To entrust it to the Democratic party is to invite disaster. Whether, as in 1892, the Democratic party declares the protective tariff unconstitutional, or whether it demands tariff reform or tariff revision, its real object is always the destruction of the protective system. However specious the name, the purpose is ever the same. A Democratic tariff has always been followed by business adversity; a Republican tariff by business prosperity. To a Republican congress and a Republican president this great question can be safely entrusted. When the only free trade country among the great nations agitates a return to protection the chief protective country should not falter in maintaining it.

RECIPROCITY.

We have extended widely our foreign markets and we believe in the adoption of all practicable methods for their further extension, including commercial reciprocal arrangements, can be effected consistent with the principles of protection and without injury to American agriculture, American labor or any American industry.

FINANCIAL PLANK.

We believe it to be the duty of the Republican party to uphold the gold standard and the integrity of our national currency. The maintenance of the gold standard, established by the Republican party, cannot safely be committed to the Democratic party, which resisted its adoption and has never given any proof since that time of belief in it or fidelity to it.

SHIP SUBSIDY.

While every other industry has prospered under the fostering aid of Republican legislation, American shipping engaged in foreign trade in competition with the low cost of construction, low wages and heavy subsidies of foreign governments, has not for many years received from the government of the United States adequate encouragement of any kind. We, therefore, favor legislation which will encourage and build up the American merchant marine and we cor-

PHILIPPINES.

In the Philippines we have suppressed insurrection, established order and given to life and property a security never known there before. We have organized civil government, made it effective and strong in administration and have conferred upon the people of those islands the largest civil liberty they have ever enjoyed.

CUBA.

We refused to pander longer with the miseries of Cuba. We fought a quick and victorious war with Spain. We set Cuba free, governed the island for three years and then gave it to the Cuban people with order restored, with ample revenues, with education and public health established, free from debt and connected with the United States by wise provisions for our mutual interests. We have organized the government of Porto Rico and its people now enjoy peace, freedom, order and prosperity.

THE PUBLIC CREDIT.

The public credit, which had been so lowered that in time of peace a Democratic administration made large loans at extravagant rates of interest in order to pay current expenditures, rose under Republican administration to its highest point and enabled us to borrow at 2 per cent, even in time of war.

THE GOLD STANDARD.

We firmly established the gold standard, which was then menaced with destruction. Confidence returned to business and with confidence an unexampled prosperity.

For deficient revenues supplemented by imprudent issues of bonds we gave the country an income which produced a large surplus and which enabled us only four years after the Spanish war had closed to remove over one hundred millions of annual war taxes, reduce the public debt and lower the interest charges of the government.

"A Picnic"

In the real sense and in the slang sense will be an occasion of delight to you if you have laid in a generous lot of biscuit, crackers, tinned meats or fish (ham, tongue, salmon, sardines) ever to be had in this supply store for our friends on an outing bent. Understand, these goods are all right the whole year around; note too, that our prices are not raised for holiday merry-making.

STRONG NAVY.

A navy powerful enough to defend the United States against any attack, to uphold the Monroe doctrine and watch over our commerce is essential to the safety and the welfare of the American people. To maintain such a navy is the fixed policy of the Republican party.

CHINESE EXCLUSION.

We cordially approve the attitude of President Roosevelt and congress in regard to the exclusion of Chinese labor and promise a continuation of the Republican policy in that direction.

CIVIL SERVICE.

The civil service law was placed on the statute books by the Republican party, which has always sustained it, and we renew our former declarations that it shall be thoroughly and honestly enforced.

PENSIONS.

We are always mindful of the country's debt to the soldiers and sailors of the United States and we believe in making ample provision for them and in the liberal making of pension laws.

We favor the peaceful settlement of international differences by arbitration.

PROTECTION OF CITIZENS.

We commend the vigorous efforts made by the administration to protect American citizens in foreign lands and pledge ourselves to insist upon the just and equal protection of all our citizens abroad. It is the unquestioned duty of the government to procure for all our citizens, without distinction, the rights of travel and sojourn in friendly countries and we declare ourselves in favor of all proper efforts tending to that end.

Our great interests and our growing commerce in the Orient render the regulation of China of high importance to the United States. We cordially commend the policy pursued in that direction by the administrations of President McKinley and President Roosevelt.

SOUTHERN REPRESENTATION.

We favor such congressional action as shall determine whether by special discriminations the elective franchise in any state has been unconstitutionally limited and, if such is the case, we demand that representation in congress and in the electoral college shall be proportionately reduced, as directed by the constitution of the United States.

Combinations of capital and labor are the results of economic movement of the age, but neither must be permitted to trample upon the rights and interests of the people. Such combinations when lawfully formed for lawful purposes are alike entitled to the protection of the laws, but both are subject to laws, and neither can be permitted to break them.

The great statesman and patriotic American, William McKinley, who was re-elected by the Republican party to the presidency four years ago, was assassinated just as the threshold of his second term. The entire nation mourned his untimely death and did that justice to his great qualities of mind and character which history will confirm and repeat.

The American people were fortunate in his successor to whom they turned with a trust and confidence which have been fully justified. President Roosevelt brought to a finish the policies of his predecessor with high ideals of public duty and public service. True to the principles of the Republican party and to the policies which that party had decreed, he has also shown himself ready for every emergency and has met new and vital questions with ability and with success.

The confidence in his justice, inspired by his public career enabled him to render personally an inestimable service to the country by bringing about a settlement of the coal strike which threatened such disastrous results at the opening of winter in 1902.

Our foreign policy under his administration has not only been able, vigorous and dignified, but in the highest degree successful.

The complicated questions which rose in Venezuela were settled in such a way by President Roosevelt that the Monroe doctrine was signally vindicated and the cause of peace and arbitration greatly advanced.

The prompt and vigorous action in Panama, which we commend in the highest terms, not only secured to us the canal route, but avoided foreign complications which might have been of a very serious character.

He has continued the policy of President McKinley in the Orient and our position in China, signified by our recent commercial treaty with that empire, has never been so high.

He secured the tribunal by which the vexed and perilous question of the Alaskan boundary was finally settled.

Whenever crimes against humanity have been perpetrated which have shocked our people his protest has been made and our good offices have been rendered but a ways with due regard to international obligations.

Under his guidance we find ourselves at peace with all the world and never were more respected or our wishes more regarded by foreign nations.

Tremendously successful in regard to our foreign relations, he has been equally successful in dealing with diplomatic questions. The country has known that the public credit and the national currency were absolutely safe in the hands of his administration. In the enforcement of the laws he has shown not only courage but the wisdom which understands that to permit laws to be violated or disregarded opens the door to anarchy, while the just enforcement of the law is the soundest conservatism. He has held firmly to the fundamental American doctrine that all men must obey the law, that there must be no distinction between rich and poor, between strong and weak, but that justice and equal protection under the law must be secured to every citizen without regard to race, creed or condition.

THE LINCOLN RAILS

Rev. M. Shaw Has Some Interesting Recollections of the First Republican State Convention.

Students of Lincoln history and men in this section of the state who remember him and some of the picturesque and important events of his life are at present engaged in a controversy about the rails at the first state Republican convention. The story about the Lincoln cabin in Macon county near Harriestown has been doubted by some very good authorities.

On these subjects Rev. James Shaw, one of the early Methodist ministers and presiding elders of this state has written some very interesting notes to say important facts relative to the matters in dispute.

What Rev. Mr. Shaw says very closely concerns many local incidents and people. He writes as follows:

"The first state Republican convention met in Decatur May 9, 1860. I was there and saw the scene described by Mr. Loomis. Mr. Allen, one of my stewards from Harriestown, came to my house and asked me to come to the wigwag and hear Mr. Lincoln. I said yes. I heard Mr. Douglas in Bloomington, but never heard Lincoln, although I had told in his steps at Salem, when I was pastor at Petersburg. We sat on a seat near the western aisle, I on the outer edge, Governor Oglesby presided. Mr. Yates and others were at his side. Yates I was introduced to before, and a short time after we were seated and listening to the talks of counties we heard a loud call for some one. I turned to look and Mr. Lincoln walked down by my side and was welcomed by Oglesby and seated on the platform. A short time after I heard another cheer that rose into a storm of yells. Men were flinging their hats in all directions. I turned and saw two men coming down the aisle with two rails and a third small one nailed across the two to hold them together. The men passed on and left the rails standing against the east side of the platform. Mr. Oglesby stepped down and took one of the men (John Hanks) by the hand, and from the platform introduced him to the convention. By this time the excitement was the greatest I had ever seen in revival meeting or elsewhere.

Mr. Hanks looked lost and said: "I believe this is a Republican meeting. I am a Democrat. Having heard that Mr. Lincoln was to be here to day, and as I never can forget when he split rails on my farm. I thought I would bring a couple of the rails he split to show you what a rail splitter he was." Just then the convention called for Lincoln. He arose, six feet four inches high, and said: "I well remember that I split rails on my friend's farm. I can't say that these are the rails I split; they look like them. I think I made better rails than these." Then I got excited and took Mr. Allen's arm and said "Brother Allen, this will elect Mr. Lincoln. Don't you remember General Harrison and the 'log cabin'?" This is going in the same way, and Harper's Weekly will have all this we are looking at in a few days.

After Lincoln spoke Yates got up and said: "Mr. Lincoln will be our next president and I shall be your next governor," and so it turned out.

After the election I was stationed at Clinton and sent a note to Mr. Hanks with a friend, asking for a piece of the rail to make a cane of. He wrote me back, saying: "Dear Mr. Shaw: Gladly would I give you what you want, but there is not a rail left on my farm. John Hanks." It is said that all the farms around lost their rails to supply the demand. Mr. Worrick supposes that Mr. Lincoln never saw the rails before they were exhibited in the campaign, because they, with Lincoln's home, were burned up. Mr. Loomis' reply is the more correct one, for Mr. Hanks said the rails were made on his farm, not on Lincoln's, and so were not burned up. Mr. Worrick refers to "the walnut rails on the Huddleston farm near by as made by Lincoln. They would be of value as relics, if they could be distinguished from others." It was two of these walnut rails that Dr. Schroeder of this city obtained, and he gave me one; the other was burned in the Bloomington fire four years ago. Mine has been made into a walking cane. While the writers aim at veracity in this story, Lincoln's verdict should never be forgotten: "I cannot say that these were the rails that I made; they look like them."

COMMITTEES

ARE NAMED

For Fourth of July Celebration—Varied Program of Events Has Been Arranged Something Doing All the Time.

The following gentlemen have been named on the committees for the Fourth of July and their well known reputation for making things go with a push and jerk will insure each and every event being a decided success in itself. No other lot of men have ever been named who take such a general interest in things in which they are associated.

In the field of athletics, Professor Rayhill, assisted by Dr. Burkholder and John Sibert, will have exclusive management in each and every branch. Professor Rayhill, in addition to his profession, has always taken a keen interest in athletic sports and the two other gentlemen are on a par in interest with him.

William Woods, O. C. Henry and Frank Huffaker will have charge of the horse show. Mr. Lohman was on this committee, but is kept to his room by illness. The success of similar events managed by these gentlemen will make a guarantee that it will be a fine set of horses shown here on that day.

The baby show, that event in which proud parents take so much interest, will be managed by Messrs. T. M. Tomlinson, E. S. VanAnglen and Louis Frank, and we all know that the pagoda will be full of the little fellows. Two prizes will be offered in this class; one for the best girl baby, and one for the best boy, all under the age of 18 months.

The balloon ascension is under the management of Messrs. W. C. Howe, E. M. Henderson and Thomas Allen. These gentlemen have secured Hunt Bros., of New York, to make the ascension, and as they have a brand new outfit, it will surely be a high go.

The speaking committee, Messrs. Charles Rutledge, John Robertson, E. E. Crabtree and Mayor Davis, will undoubtedly have some of the best speakers in the state. These gentlemen are acquainted with most, if not all, of the prominent men and will certainly give us good quality in that line.

The mackerel brigade is under the management of Messrs. Henderson, Babb and Buckthorpe, and a funny turn out is a sure go. We want to have something doing all of the time so that when night comes the people will be in a frame of muscular resignation, and will welcome a chance to sit down and watch the acro-pyrotechnic combustions with due admiration.

There will be vaudeville twice in the afternoon, the same, free, which you have wasted your good money many times for. Let every one come out and have a good time.

CHAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS BETTER THAN A DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by all leading druggists.

I would have sworn when I would drop down anywhere and would remain unconscious for as long as 24 hours at a time. The doctor said it was a hard case of dropsy and something that could not be cured. I heard of your remedy and took it according to directions and found relief with the first bottle, so I continued it until I had used six bottles and now I am well and able to do a good day's washing, which I could not do before. I can't thank you enough for what your remedy has done for me, and I recommend it to all who suffer, as it is worth its weight in gold to sick women."

W. E. Baker, of the firm of Baker & Perry, was the victim of a number of good natured rallies yesterday on account of the similarity of his name with that of the William Baker arrested for intoxication. The reputation of Mr. Baker, the merchant, makes an explanation even unnecessary, though it became almost annoying to have so much fun poked at him.

A Little Talk on Soap

Probably there is no other household necessity about which so little is known as soap, and yet there is no article that is put to more varied uses in the home.

We doubt if there is a housekeeper in Jacksonville that would tolerate the use of a dish or utensil washed with yellow, resin filled soap, did she know of the renderings of the slaughter house the fat of cholera bugs and diseased cattle that enter into its manufacture.

Stop one moment and consider that your inner garments are not only washed but boiled in these ingredients and only slightly changed by the action of the caustic potash or lye.

All yellow soaps contain these animal fats as do many white soaps that are filled with tallow grease. Ignorance of the composition of these yellow soaps or with the enlightened inability to procure any other have fostered their sale until now.

Recognizing the demand for a soap that would meet the requirements of the hygienic housekeeper we have placed in our stock and now have on sale in our busy basement, a purely vegetable soap made of nothing but coconut butter, cotton seed oil and borax, containing no vile animal whatsover and as pure, fresh and dainty as the ocean breeze. This soap will lather freely in hot or cold, hard or soft water, will not shrink flannels or woollens, will not fade dyed goods, will wash the soiled linens and muslins and send them from the tubclean, white, sweet-smelling and whole some, and yet is as valuable and re-freshing in the toilet and bath as in the laundry.

Floating soaps are made to float by beating air into the stock during the making.

Blo-Re-Mo White Laundry Soap

Does not float and it is all soap, no wind.

To introduce this soap into every home in this city we have procured the services of a demonstrator who will be pleased to tell you all about it and show you samples of the oils it contains. And the price within the reach of all 5c the bar, or six for 25c or $4.00 the box, 100 bars.

Remember the name BLO-RE-MO WHITE LAUNDRY SOAP, the aristocrat of all soaps.

LINCOLN EXHIBIT.

Wednesday evening Mrs. Jessie Palmer Weber, accompanied by Miss Linda Weber, and Mrs. J. Price, will go to St. Louis, where they will be met to day by George Black and Harry Barker, of Springfield, and John Miller, chairman of the executive committee and speaker of the present house. The party will then go to the fair grounds to make the final arrangement for the Illinois Historical society exhibit, which is to be the only exhibit in the Illinois building.

The sixteen wall cases containing the manuscript and pictorial life of Abraham Lincoln were finished last evening at the state house, after much research and work, and were shipped yesterday to the fair grounds. With them will be the four floor cases all of glass and the dozen or more portraits of Lincoln, which will be hung over the wall cases. The wall cases will hang on a level with the eye, and below them will be the long floor cases containing the relics which have been collected. The whole will be placed in the alcove directly in front of the entrance door of the Illinois building. The arrangement and collection of the material in the cases has been wholly in the hands of Mrs. Weber and most systematically and well has she done her work. The last touch was made late last evening, Mrs. Weber and her co-workers remaining long after 6 o'clock to complete the cases.

READ THIS:

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 24, 1901.—For twelve years I have suffered from sweet diabetes and have spent hundreds of dollars with various doctors, with but little benefit. I was recommended to try a bottle of Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and with cheerfully testify to the public that it did me more good than all things else put together and am altogether another man. I have persuaded many of my friends to try it.

SLIGHTLY USED PIANOS

Just returned from renting. They have been coming in and going out again so rapidly for the past two weeks that we really have not had time to mention it. But there are some excellent ones left. It's mighty nice to have some one else make a good large payment on a piano so that you only need to fix up the balance and call it yours. Come in and see them.

MATRIMONIAL

CALDWELL-DELEUW.

A very pretty home wedding was celebrated Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock when Miss Johanna Marie DeLeuw became the bride of Mr. William Arthur Caldwell, of Watkins, N. Y.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Bessie M. DeLeuw, 209 South Koscusko street and was witnessed only by the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends of the families of the bride and groom. The decorations were most beautiful and though simple were arranged with exquisite taste. Green and white was the color scheme in the front and back parlors and a profusion of June lilies and asparagus fern contributed to produce a charming effect.

The marriage vows were taken in the back parlor, the bride and groom and attendants standing in front of a lower of green and white artistically constructed with a mass of June lilies forming the center.

The bridal party entered from the hallway to the stirring strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin skillfully played by Miss Corinne Stout. The impressive marriage ceremony was said by Dr. A. B. Morey, pastor of State Street Presbyterian church, using the beautiful ring ceremony.

The attendants were Miss Eleanor DeLeuw, sister of the bride and Mr. George Buck, of Chicago, cousin of the groom.

At the conclusion of the service elegant refreshments were served in the dining room which was tastefully decorated in pink and white.

The bride is a young lady of most pleasing personality and charm of manner. She is an alumna of the Jacksonville Female academy and for several years has devoted herself to literary pursuits. She recently resigned the principalship of the Lafayette school where she has made an enviable record for efficient service. She is a member of the Fortnightly club and of the State Street Presbyterian church.

The groom is a graduate of Cornell university, where he was prominently identified with the university life. He was a member of the varsity eleven and soon after graduation was appointed athletic instructor at the State School for the Deaf in this city. Later he devoted himself to newspaper work but more recently has engaged in the occupation of farming.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell left on the evening train for the east and after a wedding trip will reside at Watkins, N. Y.

Among those present from out of the city were Mrs. J. H. Stannard, of Columbia, S. C.; J. Henry Stannard, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Meigs Stannard, of Columbia, S. C.; Mrs. Orton and daughter, Miss Virginia, of Franklin; Julian and Louis Orton, of Lincoln and Mrs. George W. Soliday, of Chicago and Mr. Geo. Buck, of Chicago.

VICKERY-RICE.

The marriage of Mr. George Vickery and Miss Emma F. Rice was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hulet, east of this city. Rev. R. F. Thrapp, pastor of the Christian church, of this city, performed the ceremony in an impressive manner and after the words of hearty congratulation and best wishes had been spoken an elaborate wedding supper was served.

The beautiful Hulet home was very prettily decorated for the occasion and the June blossoms were arranged with artistic skill. The guest list was limited to about forty immediate relatives and intimate friends.

The bride is a lady whose charm of manner and many accomplishments have endeared her to a wide circle of friends and comes from one of the oldest and first families of Morgan county.

The groom is a member of the firm of Hillierby, Vickery & Brady and is one of the enterprising and progressive merchants of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Vickery will go to housekeeping at once at 800 West College avenue.

The bride and groom are both well known residents of the county and have both taught in the county schools with marked success. They will have the best wishes of a host of friends for a most happy and prosperous married life.

MCDONALD-McGRATH.

William McDonald, of Flora, Ill., and Miss Katherine McGrath, of Ashland, were united in marriage Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, in the latter city, at St. Augustine's church, Rev. Father Metzke officiating. The wedding was largely attended and was magnificent in all its appointments.

The bridal party entered to the music of the wedding march from Lohengrin, the maid of honor, Miss Rose McGrath, and the bridesmaids, Miss Emma McHatten and Miss Theresa Keating, entering by the center aisle, being met before the altar by Edward McDonald, best man, and John McBride and Joseph McDonald, the groomsmen. The bride entered upon the arm of her brother-in-law, Luther Daniels.

The flower girls were Misses Lucy McGrath and Pearl Fitzgerald, who were dressed in white. The bride was gown in a beautiful creation of crepe de chine over white silk, trimmed with silk lace and pearls. She wore a veil and carried bride's roses. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Perib, of Chapin, and last August went to California for an extended visit. Mr. Oberste is well known here, having last year been in the employ of Tony Becker, and also at one time was traveling representative of the Deering Harvester company. They will make their home in Oakland.

Miss Della Waggoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Waggoner, of this city, was married June 14 to Mr. Judge Love, of Chicago. The wedding took place at the residence of the groom's parents in the presence of a few friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Love have gone to Colorado and California on an extended wedding tour and will return to Chicago in the fall.

INGRAM-BRUNE.

Mr. Lemuel J. Ingram, of Springfield, and Miss Rose K. Brune, of this city, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Lutheran church parsonage by Rev. H. Hallerberg. Only immediate relatives of the parties were present, and the ceremony was a simple one.

The bride and groom were attended by Miss Alice Brune and O. C. Ingram. The bride wore a shirt waist suit of blue silk, with hat to match.

PATTON-JESS.

Springfield News: A prominent event of June was the marriage last evening of Dr. Charles Patton, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Patton, and Miss Alice Jess, daughter of Mrs. A. A. Jess. The ceremony was performed at the First Christian church at 8:30 o'clock among large quantities of tall palms and all the flowers of the June season. The altar was charming in its arrangement, an exquisite background for the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. Charles Peterson, Jr., preceded the ceremony with an organ recital, which merged into the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" at the entrance of the bridal party, sung by Mrs. W. F. Irwin, Mrs. Mary Tiffany Hudson, Mrs. Leonora Henkle Starne, Mrs. Marie Poston Dallman, Mrs. Frances Paddock Keys, Mrs. Annie Grout Fitzgerald and Miss Mary Hudson.

The bridesmaids and the bride entered from one side of the church and the groomsmen and best man with the groom from the other. At the altar the party grouped about the bride and groom and the ring ceremony of the Christian church was read by Rev. Charles Clayton Morrison, pastor of the church.

Leading the way for the bride were the Misses Helen Matheny, Catherine Roberts, Lillian Berry and Bessie Wilson, all of this city; Winifred Hadley, of Edwardsville, and Ella Conger, of New York. They were gown in light blue liberty silk with wreaths of maiden hair fern in their hair, and carried baskets of the same. The maid of honor, Miss Ella Conger, was gown in cream liberty satin with bertha of daisies lace, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas.

The bride gown was of white oblique satin, with pearl trimmings and old rose point lace. She wore a bridal veil fastened with orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The groomsmen were Messrs. Vernon David, of Chicago; Louis Scheutte, of Saginaw, Mich.; John Jess, John Lamphier, Thomas Smith, John Latham and Dr. L. C. Taylor, of this city. Harry Patton, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

During the ceremony Mrs. Peterson played "For I Love You Truly" and "Hearts and Flowers." The choir loft was beautifully adorned with asparagus fern and peonies.

At the Jess home on South Second street one of the most brilliant wedding receptions ever given in this city was held. The bride and groom received the good wishes and congratulations of their friends with Mrs. A. A. Jess and Mr. and Mrs. James Patton. The beautiful home was enriched with the most gorgeous of June blossoms and myriads of lights which shone from the ceilings and walls. The entrance hall and outer porch, which was enclosed, formed one long reception hall, at the end of which rose the staircase entwined with vines. Ferns and palms added their cool green to the wealth of color and everywhere blossomed the round peony and roses. Exquisite pond lilies amid a field of green ferns decorated the tables where the luncheon was served. Adjoining the hall was a large marquee, where refreshments were also served.

Dr. Patton has one more year in his post graduate course at Ann Arbor, where he is a member of the university faculty in the surgical department, and during that time Dr. and Mrs. Patton will live in Ann Arbor, Mich. They will be at home there after July 27, preceding this date with their wedding journey. Dr. Patton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Patton and has lived all his life in Springfield, where he has hosts of friends. He is a rising young man in his profession as well as a young man of sterling worth and is highly esteemed. His bride is from the younger society women of the capital. She is personally one of the most admirable of Springfield's younger daughters, possessed of a charm of manners which has made her innumerable friends. Monticello seminary, where have gone mothers and daughters from all over Illinois, is the bride's alma mater.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wood and Miss Myrtle Wood, and Mrs. Neil Duckels, of Jacksonville.

Mrs. Patton made her home in this city several years ago, when her mother, Mrs. Jess, had a temporary residence here.

CONTRACT AWARDED

John Lonergan's Bid Accepted by Drainage and Levee District Commissioners.

The commissioners of the Mercedosia lake drainage and levee district met Wednesday morning in company with their attorney, Hon. Milton McClure, of Beardstown, for the purpose of considering the bids for construction, which were opened Tuesday. After considering all the bids, the contract was awarded to John Lonergan, of this city, the total amount involved being $46,438.68. The contract calls for the completion of the work by Dec. 1, 1904.

The district begins about two miles above Mercedosia, at Willow creek bridge, and extends in a northwesterly direction to a point near Indian creek; thence in an easterly direction to the sand ridge about four miles west of the bluffs.

The specifications call for a ditch four feet deep by twenty-four feet wide at the top and sixteen feet at the bottom, and 14,934 feet long. It will require the removal of 114,462.2 cubic yards of earth. The levee is divided into three sections, the earth necessary for the first being 39,394.4 cubic yards; for the second, 84,536.4 cubic yards; for the third, 77,776.5 cubic yards. At its widest point the levee will have a base of sixty-seven feet.

The draining of this tract is expected to reclaim hundreds of acres of fine farming lands. It is a large undertaking, but will no doubt be a profitable one.

FRED H. RANKIN

HONORED

Elected to Secretaryship of the World's Fair Live Stock Department—Is Well Known Here.

The Drovers' Journal, of June 20, says:

"With the election of Fred H. Rankin, of Urbana, Ill., to the position of secretary of the live stock department of the world's fair, the vacancy made by the appointment of the former secretary, Col. Charles F. Mills, to the position of chief, has been filled. Mr. Rankin is the secretary of the Illinois Improved Live Stock Breeders' association, as well as superintendent of college extension in the college of agriculture in the University of Illinois. Years of experience has fitted him in an exceptional degree for taking up the secretaryship of the live stock department at the world's fair.

"Secretary Rankin has a broad acquaintance with live stock breeders, and wherever known is highly spoken of as an energetic, hustling business man. The Drovers' Journal believes that the live stock department is to be congratulated in having been able to secure the services of so acceptable a man at this stage of the exposition."

The new position will not require Mr. Rankin to give up his position at Champaign. The Journal and other Jacksonville friends congratulate him on his preferment.

HORSE SHOW

Will Be One of the Many Fourth of July Attractions—Cash Prizes Offered.

Special mention should be made of the horse show on the north side of the public square on the afternoon of the Fourth. Messrs. Woods, Hufaker and Henry have this in charge, as has been mentioned elsewhere, and a fine lot of drivers is guaranteed.

Four double cash prizes will be offered in this class. There will be a first and second prize for the best single turnout, everything considered except the driver. A first and second prize for the best double turnout, everything considered, and as we have a number of the pretty little animals, admirers of these pets can expect a good display.

The last prize in the horse show will be a first and second prize for the best mule team. Of late, many of the farmers have purchased mule teams for work on the farm and there is nothing to keep these men from driving their teams to town on that day and having a chance to get a little extra money for the best team. All parties wishing to enter their animals in any of the above classes will please hand their names to Mr. Woods on or before the first day of July. He will have the exclusive management of this class.

RULES ADOPTED FOR PARK VISITORS

Restrictions and Privileges in Force at Pleasure Resort.

The arrangements by which people can reach Nichol's park for five cents the entire distance is proving quite popular, and though not as desirable as a street car line all the way, it is a whole lot better than nothing. So far hundreds have availed themselves of the facilities thus provided and the owner of the transfer wagon promises to improve his rolling stock as fast as possible and go as often as business will justify. The fishing is proving good and shows the wisdom of closing the lake until the 18th, and it is hoped all will see the reasonableness of the rule.

Attention is called to the rules governing the park:

No shooting is permitted on the grounds.

No hitching to trees.

Fishing is restricted to one line to a person.

Trot lines, seines, nets of any kind, several lines or poles to one person are all prohibited.

All boats and property belonging to private individuals must be kept subject to the rules of the park.

Persons are invited to have their private boats on the lake, but subject always to the rules of the park, and the orders of the superintendent, Frank Kitzer and the custodian.

Some people are already acting a greedy part, fishing all day and getting large strings of fish for sale.

The park is a pleasure resort for everybody and fishing for gain should not be, and if persisted in, some means will be taken to stop it.

Everybody properly behaving is welcome there and urged to go; persons behaving improperly will be put out of the park; the commission wants the place always safe and inviting to the people in general—ladies and children unattended, and all others.

These are some of the reasonable regulations and all are urged to cultivate a sentiment supporting the commission in their enforcement. It is probable that an extra police force will be employed for Sundays if it seems wise to do so.

WILL ORGANISE NEW CHAPTER

Daughters of the American Revolution—Membership Will Be Limited and Other Features Will Characterize New Society

Another chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution is soon to be organized in Jacksonville. Mrs. J. Thompson Sharpe has been authorized by the state regent, Mrs. Charles H. Deere, of Rock Island, to form another chapter, which will be organized some time this summer or early in the fall.

The new chapter will be limited in membership and only those eligible to membership in the society of the Colonial Dames, as well as in the D. A. R., or those who can enter from more than one ancestral line, will be considered as applicants for membership in the new chapter.

So far as is known there are only two colonial dames in the city, Mrs. J. Thompson Sharpe and Miss Effie Epler, although there are doubtless many others who are eligible to such membership.

Mrs. Charles H. Deere, the state regent, does not approve of large chapters in the D. A. R. work, and as Jacksonville already has the largest chapter in the state outside of Chicago, the permission to organize the new society was granted. The new chapter will have for its purpose the promotion of patriotic, educational and historical enterprises.

If there is the slightest doubt in the minds of any that Dandruff germs do not exist, their belief is compelled by the fact that a rabbit inoculated with the germs became bald in six weeks' time. DRIFTING WAR MINES.

How They Would Imperil Ships In Many Ocean Pathways.

MAY FLOAT THOUSANDS OF MILES

Possibility of Disaster to Vessels In American Pacific Coast Waters From Explosives Set Adrift at Port Arthur by Russians—Remarkable Instances of the Course Taken by Floating Objects at Sea.

Setting explosives adrift in the ocean—as the correspondent of the London Times and the New York Times on board the Halmun warned the world in his wireless message the other day the Russians have done—is a new phase of warfare against which the whole world will protest in no uncertain terms.

The greatest immediate danger to shipping from mines or torpedoes set adrift in the Pacific, between Port Arthur and Weihaiwei, would be in the Gulf of Pechili, the Yellow sea and the sea of Japan between Japan and the mainland. The summer monsoons are now blowing from the sea to the land, the prevailing direction being from southeast to northwest. Objects set adrift at this season near the entrance to the Gulf of Pechili are likely to drift anywhere through the Gulf across the routes of the thousands of Chinese junks which ply in those waters. No vessels bound for Chefoo, Taku, the port of Tientsin or Newchwang would be exempt from danger if any driftage is of a dangerous character.

Another influence is in operation which would bring danger to the shipping movement in the Yellow sea and the Japan sea. A branch of the great Kuroshio current runs westward across the Yellow sea to Pechili strait, just south of Port Arthur. Here the current bends around, skirts the southern coast of Korea and then runs up the Japan sea into the Okhotsk sea, skirting half of the east side of Sakhalin Island. Explosives set adrift near Port Arthur at any season of the year might easily reach all these coasts which have been the scene of all the movements of the war fleets, including the Vladivostok squadron.

What might happen next winter? The fierce winter monsoon blowing off the land carries much debris from Japan and southeast China to the Philippine Islands and all other parts of the eastern island world from Formosa to Borneo. Drifting explosives in good condition set adrift in the neighborhood of Port Arthur might, for all we know, bring the same dangers to shipping in the East Indies archipelago that now seem to threaten life and property in the more northern waters. Torpedoes would be just as likely to be carried into the channels among the Philippine Islands as the Asian debris that now floats in them or is dashed against the shore.

But the danger might travel farther. Any floating object from these Asian coasts may not hug the shore closely enough to avoid being swept into the great main stream of the Kuroshio, the wide ocean river that sweeps in a vast curve across the north Pacific. The great circle steaming route followed by some of the steamships between American Pacific ports and Japan dip into the southern edge of this stream. Although the Kuroshio gradually loses the character of a current, it sets slowly along the coasts of British North America, the United States and Lower California, ultimately rejoining the equatorial current. The branch that sweeps southward along our coasts is known as the California current. The northward branch washes the shores of our Alaskan Islands.

If explosives get into the main stream of the Kuroshio, who is able to say that coastal steamers between Alaska and Panama, that deep sea vessels along the northern route between the American Pacific and Asia, will not be liable to meet terrible disaster? A few illustrations of ocean currents and winds as carrying agents may help us to answer this question.

Rachis tells of a Japanese junk that in 1832 was carried by a typhoon into the Kuroshio current. Four of the nine poor fishermen on board lived to tell the tale. They barely kept life in their bodies with the aid of rain water and fish until after drifting for ten months they were cast ashore on the coast of Oahu, in the Hawaiian Islands. In the wind drift east of the Kuroshio current their craft had been carried to the southeast till they reached this northeastern group of Polynesia.

Kotzebue gives specific instances of Japanese and Chinese seafarers whose junks were blown away from their native shores, the mariners actually living to reach the American coast, having drifted across the north Pacific into the Kuroshio current and the west wind drift.

The list of authenticated cases prepared by the late Professor Quatrefages and Otto Sittling of island boatmen who have been involuntarily carried to another of the Pacific world all several newspaper columns. Not a few of these involuntary journeys have extended from 500 to over 1,000 miles.

If we turn to any other of the oceans we also find a large amount of conclusive testimony as to the great distances to which currents and winds carry floating objects. A number of objects, for example, identified as belonging to the Jeannette expedition were borne on the sea ice some 3,000 miles and finally cast upon the southwest coast of Greenland.

In the course of three years Prince Albert of Monaco launched about 1,500 thick glass floats upon the mid Atlantic between the Azores and Newfoundland. Of these floats, 227 were returned to the prince. Thirty-seven of them were washed up on the shores of the Azores, 6 on Madeira, 21 on the Canaries, 3 on Iceland, 22 on Norway, 20 on the British Isles, 36 on France, 14 on Spain, 7 on Africa, 23 on the West Indies and 4 on the Bermudas.

A sealed bottle thrown into the North sea at Reden, on the northeast coast of England, on Oct. 8, 1891, was picked up six months later by a fisherman off the island of Heligoland, in the extreme north of Norway. The shortest distance between the two points is 1,400 miles.

On July 28, 1892, a remarkable mass of earth, roots and verdure, with an estimated area of one-third of an acre, was seen in the Atlantic a little north of the Bermudas. It had evidently traveled from tropical America and had probably issued from the Orinoco or the Amazon river. On Aug. 26, when it was next sighted, it was north of the latitude of Boston and was approaching the Grand banks in the track of transatlantic travel. A little over two weeks later, on Sept. 13 and 14, two more vessels came across the wanderer. There was a heavy sea, and the traveler from the tropics was having a hard time of it. It was seen again on Sept. 19, and was then northwest of the Azores and almost in midocean. It was probably demolished soon afterward by the violence of the waves. From the first to the last reports this waif from tropical America certainly traveled 1,075 miles, and its total journey may have been at least twice that distance.

Enough has been told here of the drift of objects floating on the sea to show that any nation which turns explosives loose in the ocean should be held responsible by the civilized world for an act of folly and wicked recklessness that is likely to cause disaster thousands of miles away.

CHARITIES IN JAPAN.

Efficient Care Taken of Adults and Small Children.

The greatest development of Japan in charity has been in the institutional care of able bodied adults and of dependent children, says Charities. Progress in the care of the former dates back to 1898, when a commission was appointed to consider the problem in all its bearings. This commission recommended, first, the erection, through funds furnished by the state, of workshops in which the indigent poor of Tokyo could be put at work and their earnings applied to their support; second, to supplement these workshops, or until they could be erected, by the establishment of agencies for furnishing drivers of vehicles, mowers of lawns, etc., men with simple occupations, the employee to remain under control of the agencies and his earnings to be applied to his support, and, third, the support under sanitary conditions of the aged, the cripples and those incapable of any form of labor, and the rearing of their children at public expense and under public oversight. As a result of this plan it is not unusual to find that workshop inmates such as the blind, the paralytic, the infirm, the high or middle grade idiots and persons who have lost one or more limbs become well trained in some particular task and acquire a degree of skill that enables them to earn more than is necessary for their support.

In the children's institutions boys over seven are placed largely in the hands of older boys, more experienced and more serious companions. Young girls go to school carrying upon their backs infants that have been entrusted to them so as to lighten the tasks of the regular attendants. The attendants are fourfold, those watching over the child's clothing, the food, the cleanliness of person and the physical training. In the training of institutional children a kindly demeanor is required on the part of the attendants, and in every way there is encouragement of the effort to provide a mother's tenderness and sympathy. Poindlings are boarded out for three years with nurses who are paid $2 or $3 a month.

Blue Roses a Millinery Fancy.

One of the astonishing millinery fancies of the year is the blue rose, says the New York Journal. Such a flower never sprouted on the earth's face, but, built in shaded velvet, crimped silk or even cleverly tinted muslin, it is bewitching on the summer hat of lace or mullin. Another blue blossom which has made its appearance is the hyacinth, but it must be used with discretion. An imported hat is a peculiar shade bordering on navy blue. It is trimmed with these hyacinths and ribbon which matches the bloom. In certain light the entire confection turns to blue; turn it toward the sun and it shows violet tints.

Fine For Trailing Dresses.

By a vote of 6 against 5 the magistrates of Prague, Germany, have ordered that all women who wear trailing dresses in the streets shall be fined.

The Fisher of Nippon.

Where now the brownie fisher lad? His hundred thousand fishing boats Rock idly in the ready moors. His baby wife no more is glad. But yesterday, with all Nippon, Beneath his pink white cherry trees, In chorus with his brown, sweet bees, He careless sang, and sang right on. Take care, for he has ceased to sing: His startled bees have taken wing!

His cherry blossoms drop like blood; His bees begin to storm and sting; His sea fish lightning, and a flood Of crimson stains their wide, white ring; His battleships belch hell, and all Nippon is but one Spartan wall. Ave, he, the boy of yesterday. Now holds the bearded Russ at bay; While blossoms' steps above, the clouds Wait still, as with their shrouds Two Statues of a Six Statute Poem by Jonathan Miller in June Century.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

An Indian Boy's Odd Description of the Horse.

Here is the description of a horse written by an Indian boy, a student at Carlisle, Pa. Do you think it is correct, and, if not, how would you improve it?

"The horse is a very noble quadruped, but when he is angry he will not do so. He is ridden on the spinal cord by the bridle, and sadly the driver places his tools on the stirrups and divides his lower limbs across the saddle and drives his animal to the meadow. He has four legs; two are on the front side and two are afterward. These are the weapons on which he runs. He also defends himself by extending these in the rear in a parallel direction towards his foe, but this he does only when he is in an aggravated mood. There is no animal like the horse. No sooner they see their guardian or master than they always cry for food, but it is always at the morning time. They have got tails, but not so long as the cow and such other like animals."

French Game.

A game adapted from the French that is very popular among the little people of America is a good test for the memory. It is played as follows:

The children must sit in a circle, and one, as leader, announces in this fashion:

"I pack my trunk, and in it I put"—mentioning some article used in traveling, as gloves, brush or cologne.

The next child begins then, saying what the leader has said and adding another article, and so on around the circle, each child repeating all the articles mentioned by the leader in their correct order and then adding one more to the list, which after awhile assumes lengthy proportions.

If one boy or girl forgets one article or puts it in the wrong order, he or she must drop out of the game, and the last child remaining has the privilege of starting a new game. —Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

The Humming Bird.

One of the prettiest and most interesting of birds common to the eye is the humming bird. It is so very little and dainty and goes about its work with such an air of authority that one loves to watch it as it fits in and out of the honeysuckles. One must be very still, for the slightest noise frightens it away.

It has very gorgeous coloring. The upper parts are shining green, the wings and tail are quite dark, and the throat is a blazing red.

In the winter it goes from southern Florida to Central America.

The nest is a very cute structure. It is made of plant down, then covered over with moss lichens and small plant fibers and is usually built in orchard trees or oaks. The eggs are two in number and of a beautiful pure white.

Its favorite dish is the honey and small insects which it discovers in the flowers that it frequents. —Boston Globe.

Some of the Italian states have the white lily. Nova Scotia has the English rose, Scottish thistle and Irish shamrock, with the trailing arbutus for her distinctive emblems.

A Very Neat Girl.

Janey was so very neat. It sometimes made her mamma sigh. As when she washed the baby And hung him out to dry.

A Wrapping Paper Flute.

A little flute from which a good deal of amusement may be derived can be made by wrapping a piece of paper around a pencil to make a tube. Paste the edge fast, and to one end of the tube fasten a triangular piece of paper somewhat larger than the opening.

To play the flute draw in your breath through the open end of the tube. The difference in pitch will depend upon how hard you breathe. —Holiday Magazine.

THE GLOVED BURGLAR.

The plain and simple means of "getting round" the finger mark experts of Scotland Yard has at length commended itself to the burglar mind. In evidence given in a case at Windsor recently it was made plain that the cracksmen who made a haul of jewelry at Lady Mary Currie's some time ago had worn gloves all through the operation. The panels and panes of glass examined by the official microscope showed no telltale traces of the presence of any well known practitioner, but merely a number of blurred marks. So another detail is added to the already large outfit of the modern burglar, who will now carry his gloves along with his list slippers, his keys, his drills, his saws, his centerbit, his glass cutter, his wrench, his dynamite, his lantern, his revolver, etc. It is a business that calls for some capital. —London News.

A Story of Queen Wilhelmina.

The visit of Wilhelmina, queen of Holland, to Italy recalls her life in Florence with her mother in her girlhood. They lived in a modest way, going out daily on foot. It is related that one day they were going along the Lung'Arno, when they were accosted by a beggar. The queen regent wanted to push on, fearing that her daughter might catch some fearful disease, but the little queen, having a will of her own, insisted on stopping. She questioned the man in broken Italian, believing herself quite unknown, and on proceeding gave him half a franc. He looked from the silver in his hand to her and then back again and at last said, with an air of impertinence: "So your subjects keep you as short as that! Poor queen!"

War Humor.

"War has its humorous side," said General Nelson A. Miles, "though the humor is always grim."

"In one of my most perilous Indian campaigns I overheard a group of privates saying good night to one another on the eve of an engagement. These youths were in different regiments. They knew the coming fight would be a hot one. They knew it was probable enough that they would never see one another again."

"And so as they separated one of them said:

"Well, goodbye, boys. As the coons said when the dogs made after them, 'We'll all meet at the hatter's.'"

Our Literary Activity.

The annual statement of the copyright office of the library of congress shows that the copyright business for 1903 was the largest in any year in the history of the office. No less than 100,743 titles were received for registration, the total fees received amounting to $70,230.50. The number of articles deposited also exceeded the number of any previous year, totaling 180,527. On the entries of the year there were 14,060 books and pamphlets, 4,568 booklets, leaflets, circulars and cards and 7,641 newspaper and magazine articles. This speaks volumes for the literary activity of the country.

Tabloid Foods.

Every once in awhile one reads that the food of the future will be served in tabloids. A meal will be carried in the waistcoat pocket or in a shopping bag. This is nonsense. Tabloids will preserve life for a certain short length of time. They are excellent to use in emergencies, on forced marches and when traveling. But no one could live on them. The entire digestive system would have to be altered, and almost every natural function would have to change. The imagination pauses before the new diseases that would appear if people ceased to chew. —New York Post.

The Locusts in Egypt.

Egypt is threatened with a plague of locusts, and the government has called out the army of forced laborers to combat the pest. Owing to the young locust's habit of never turning back or aside when once started in a certain direction, it is possible, by digging trenches, sometimes miles in length, to entrap the invading hosts and destroy them. That of course must be done before the locusts take to the wing. At that stage nothing can stop their ravages, and they sweep everything before them.

Hypnotism and Heart Beats.

According to recent investigations, it appears probable that hypnotism can stop the action of a person's heart and thus cause death. A. Journet, a Frenchman, reports that he has increased and diminished the number of pulse beats at will and as far as he could venture with safety. It is said to be also proved that circulation is seriously affected, even if it is not quite certain that the heart can be silenced.

80 PER CENT OF THE ADULT POPULATION SUFFER FROM ONE PAINFUL AILMENT.

Think what this means. Imagine the amount of misery that exists and is endured simply because people do not know there is an absolute cure.

The only way to cure any complaint is to remove the cause. There are very few diseases or ailments that can be cured by external application—and piles is not one of them. Piles can be cured; the treatment must, however, be internal, for the cause of piles is an internal disorder of the liver or the bowels. Even catarrh of the stomach and bowels can be cured by Dr. PERRIN'S PILE SPECIFIC, The Internal Remedy. Here is an instance of what this practically infallible remedy will do:

Dr. C. A. Perrin, Helena, Mont.—Dear Sir: I have nearly finished the former bottle of Perrin's Pile Specific and am practically well. My case was one which most physicians would have pronounced incurable, as I was afflicted with a dysentery and compelled to go to the toilet room from three to five times each day and each time would bleed from one-half to one teaspoonful. I had to resort to bandages and absorbent cotton to check the flow of blood, and now the past ten or twelve days there has been no sign of bleeding and my appetite is good; have gained ten pounds in weight and feel like a new lease of life was given me.

Very truly yours,

T. R. HARRIS, Yerington, Nev.

Dr. Perrin's Pile Specific is sold by all reliable druggists at $1.00 the bottle, under an absolute guarantee to refund the money should this great internal remedy fail to cure.

IF YOU HAVE DYSPEPSIA

READ THIS.

The old way of taking pepsin, bismuth, etc., to cure dyspepsia is all wrong. They may be put up in tablets or in liquids, the result is just the same. The object is to create artificial digestion, but this does not make a cure. Stop taking the pepsin, etc., and have your dyspepsia or indigestion back again. People use cocaine or opium for nervous troubles and sick headache, it does not cure. Stop taking the drug and the pain and distress return. The only Common Sense Method is to drive out of the system the cause of dyspepsia and sick headache by cleaning the stomach and bowels and at the same time using a medicine that will act upon the liver. This forces through the glands of the stomach the digestive fluid that nature intended. In this way you cure dyspepsia. The medicine that cures dyspepsia by this method is called Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. Druggists sell these pills at 25c a box. It only takes one pill for a dose. For sale by Lee P. Allott.

SUED BY HIS DOCTOR.

"A doctor has sued me for $12.50, which I claimed was excessive for a case of cholera morbus," says R. White, of Chonchella, Cal. "At the trial he praised his medical skill and medicine. I asked him if it was not Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy he used, as I had good reason to believe it was, and he would not say under oath that it was not." No doctor could use a better remedy than this in a case of cholera morbus, it never fails. Sold by all leading druggists.

AT NICHOLS' PARK

Children Enjoyed Wednesday Afternoon by Classes of Centenary Church Sunday School.

Wednesday afternoon the Sunday school classes of Mrs. Tom H. Buckthorpe and Miss Carrie Morrison took advantage of the beautiful day and went out to the park for a picnic. The young people with their teachers and Miss Louie Morrison met at Centenary church and from there took the car and carry-all for the lake. Well filled lunch baskets, plenty of good young American spirit and the broad expanse of the park combined to make every one have a most enjoyable time. All afternoon the youngsters romped and romped over the park and it was very light baskets that they carried home at 8 o'clock last night. Besides the teachers above mentioned, the party consisted of Misses Sarah Davis, Bessie Brecken, Ethel Ewert, Flossie McFall, Blanche Watson, Agnes James, Ellie Smith, Bertha Mills, Katie Saphire, Ferrie Hoig; Messrs. Myrl Large, Elmer Preston, Leonard Boyd, Irvin Ingram, Jesse Grantham, Kenneth Grantham, Allen Jacobs and Russell Conners. They will remember the day for a long time as one of the best of the summer. They one and all thank Mr. Nichols for making such an outing possible.

CAR SERVICE

ASSOCIATION

New Rules Governing Freight Storage Operative July 1st.

The Illinois and Iowa Car Service association has issued circulars to the local roads, which are members of the association, containing rules governing freight storage.

The principle provisions of the rules are as follows: "Storage will be charged when freight unloaded at railroad warehouses or platforms is not removed by the consignee within forty-eight (48) hours (two days) from first 7 a. m. after freight is unloaded.

"Freight delivered at railroad warehouses or platforms for shipment will be charged storage, if held more than forty-eight (48) hours from first 7 a. m. after delivery, either to complete shipment or for forwarding directions.

"To secure space, railroads reserve the right to send freight to public warehouse at owners' risk, at the expiration of forty-eight (48) hours after being unloaded.

"When freight is held in railroad warehouses or on platforms in excess of free time, charge will be made for storage at the rate of five (5) cents per ton per day.

"Any fractional part of 2,000 pounds will be computed as a ton, and any fractional part of twenty-four (24) hours will be computed as a day.

"A minimum storage charge of five (5) cents per day will be made on each consignment of freight less than 2,000 pounds.

"Freight upon which storage charges have accrued shall not be removed from the railroad company's premises until the charges thereon have been paid."

NEW FREIGHT DEPOT

Wabash Road Took Steps Wednesday That Are Significant—Believed New Structure Only Question of Few Months.

The new Wabash freight depot seems at last to be within the range of probability. In many minds it has been a myth, but notice was served Wednesday on Messrs. Bartlett & Snyder and George W. Stont, who have buildings on the Wabash property, that they must vacate in thirty days.

This would indicate that the road intends to take the long-expected steps toward giving to the city and the patrons of the road ample freight facilities. It was not possible to learn when the work on the new structure would be begun, or exactly where it would be located. Rumor has it, however, that the plans for the building are nearly completed and that the work will be begun about the first of August. As far as location goes there will probably be little change from the present site.

This long-awaited-for step on the part of the Wabash road will not only be of direct benefit but the indirect effect will no doubt be far-reaching and it will only be a question of time until the other roads entering the city will see their way clear to improve their inadequate freight accommodations.

REASON RETURNS

Strange Effect of Bullet—John G. Jones of Peoria Attempted Suicide—May Die.

Peoria, June 22.—John G. Jones, of the Peoria board of trade, whose mind has been damaged for a year, attempted to commit suicide by shooting himself in the head and the bullet served to remove the blood clots from his brain, clearing his mind, and now Jones says he wants to live and prospects are good for his recovery.

A year ago Jones noticed a runaway horse belonging to Dr. Zeller, of the incurable insane asylum. In attempting to stop the animal he was crushed beneath the body of the animal and his head hurt. He was rendered temporarily insane by the contact and has suffered great mental derangement ever since. Believing he was a burden to his family and in one of his spells, he placed a revolver to his head and fired three shots, all three bullets taking effect.

Drs. Sutton and Marey have failed to locate the bullets in his brain. Dr. Sutton says the clotted blood pressing on his brain and causing despondency and paralysis had been relieved by the piercing bullets and loss of blood and the patient's mind was clear as a result.

Jones says: "I want to live now. My mind is clearer and I am sorry I did it, but am ready to live."

Dr. Marey said last night if inflammation could be kept down the patient would recover. Jones is an old-time Peorian and prominently identified with S. C. Bartlett & Co., of Chicago, with offices in Peoria. He is a leader in the Travelers' Protective association.

FOUND DEAD

Body of Man Was Lying on Top of Freight Train Which Pulled Into Springfield.

Springfield, June 22.—The dead body of an unknown man was found this morning by Fireman Dunlap on top of the baggage car on train No. 11 on the Chicago & Alton road bound from Chicago to St. Louis, when it pulled up at the station here at 5:45 o'clock. There was a deep gash in the back of his head and he had evidently been dead but a short time, as the blood was still oozing from the wound. The name of C. L. French was found on the dead man's clothing and he is supposed to be from Chicago.

The wound in the man's head is about four inches across and is in the back of the head. A considerable part of the skull is crushed in and from this fact it is supposed that the wound was made with some blunt instrument. There seems to be little evidence of foul play and the man was probably killed by his head striking some of the iron work of a bridge. It is supposed that he was killed not far away from Atlanta or Lincoln, for the body was still warm when found.

The coroner was summoned and the remains were taken to Blech's undertaking establishment, where they are being held awaiting identification. Coroner Baer has prepared a description of the man, which he will use in an effort to establish his identity and locate his relatives.

The description states that the dead man is apparently about 21 years old. He is 5 feet 3 inches high, of medium build and weighs about 125 pounds. He is smooth shaved, blue eyed, with medium brown straight hair. There is a scar on his breast under the left nipple, about three inches long extending downward from the middle line of the breast. He is otherwise marked by a wart on the back of his left hand below the middle finger and another on the inside joint of the little finger.

Anthony Konrad was arrested for malicious mischief by Police-men Baer and Fernandez.

THE WATER QUESTION

Will Not Down—Gentlemen Here Tuesday and Wednesday Investigating Proposition.

The water question will not down and some day the more sanguine of the citizens of Jacksonville believe that a system will be established giving the people an adequate supply from the only sure and inexhaustible source, the Illinois river. This opinion is not shared alone by citizens of Jacksonville, for hardly a week passes without some man or men, who have heard of the proposed river plan, and who are interested in such a line of work, visits the city and discusses the matter with the city officials.

During the past two days some gentlemen have been in the city on such an errand and while it is not known just what the outcome of their mission will be, or what plans they may have to present, it is encouraging, to say the least, that the question of an adequate water supply for the city of Jacksonville continues to occasionally rise to the surface. Future developments will be awaited with interest.
